December Events at the Newman Library

The Newman Library will host free programs for children this December, beginning with three seasonal crafts. The library will host a snowman craft on Tuesday, Dec. 6 at 3 p.m. On Saturday, Dec. 10 at 1:30 p.m., crafters will use colorful pipe cleaners to make animals, snowflakes and other winter holiday decorations. This craft is designed for children in kindergarten and older. On Wednesday, Dec. 14 at 3 p.m. children can craft snowmen and penguins using paper plates.

The library will host a LEGO Day on Thursdays, Dec. 8 and 22 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will have the opportunity to create LEGO displays for the library. Children under the age of 4 must have direct parental supervision.

Newman Library is located at 1305 Kern St. in Newman. For more information, please call the Newman Library branch supervisor, Thomas Kaps, at (209) 862-2010.
