Riverbank Library offers paper quilling craft, adult and teen book clubs

Teens and adults are invited to try paper quilling at the Riverbank Library on Tuesday Feb. 19 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will roll, twist, and twirl a little work of art, creating unique designs, from a simple heart to a flower card.

“Paper quilling has been around since the Renaissance and has once again become very popular,” said Victoria Holt, Riverbank Library supervisor. “It’s a fun way to create something beautiful out of colorful paper scraps.”

On Friday, Feb. 22 at 3:30 p.m., the Riverbank Library Teen Book Club will hold a discussion of “Dark Inside,” by Jeyn Roberts. The story takes place after tremendous earthquakes have destroyed Earth’s major cities. A small group of teens come together to fight for survival and safety after an ancient evil emerges, turning ordinary people into hunters, killers and insane monsters.

The Riverbank Library Book Club will discuss “We Were the Mulvaney’s” by Joyce Carol Oates on Tuesday, Feb. 26 at 4 p.m. This 2001 Oprah’s Book Club selection has been described as a sensitive portrayal of one family’s journey as they face conflict, fear, tragedy, and ultimately, themselves. The Mulvaney’s, at first a close family, living an idyllic life on a farm in upstate New York, drift apart over the years, until the youngest son, Judd, discovers the secret of their downfall and sets out to help reunite the family.

Both books, reserved for book club use, are available for checkout at the Riverbank Library in limited quantities. The Friends of the Riverbank Library will provide light refreshments for the Teen Book Club.

The Riverbank Library is located at 1500 I St. For more information, please contact Victoria Holt at the Riverbank Library at 209-869-7008. Information about regularly occurring library programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the “Events and Classes” tab.
