November Events at the Riverbank Library

Community members can enjoy a number of free programs at the Riverbank Library this month, beginning with the Mayor's Book Club on Monday, Nov. 7 at 11 a.m. Mayor Richard O'Brien will read a story to preschool age children and their families at the library following Story Time.

Adults are invited to an Estate Planning Seminar on Saturday, Nov. 12 at 2 p.m. Attorney Julie Richardson will review the basics of estate planning, including a discussion of the documents needed and issues to consider. She will also provide an update on elder laws.

Children are invited to make paper Thanksgiving pumpkins on Tuesday, Nov. 15 at 3:30 p.m. Crafters will write what they're thankful for on orange strips of paper. The paper strips will then be gathered together to make thankful pumpkins.

The Riverbank Library Book Club will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 22 at 4 p.m. to discuss Crown of Dust by Mary Volmer. Library book clubs provide an opportunity for community members to expand their knowledge of books through meaningful discussion with others. A limited number of books are available for checkout at the library's circulation desk.

Teens and adults can take part in a book tree craft on Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will make festive book trees by folding small magazines.

Crafts are sponsored by the Friends of the Riverbank Library. The Riverbank Library is located at 3442 Santa Fe St. in Riverbank. For more information, please contact the Riverbank Library branch supervisor, Victoria Holt, at (209) 869-7008.
